Based on the manga series written by Ukyō Kodachi and Masashi Kishimoto and illustrated by Mikio Ikemoto, 'Boruto' revolves around the next generation of ninjas of the Hidden Leaf Village. The eponymous character is the son of Naruto Uzumaki and Hinata Hyuga. Since his childhood, he has witnessed the adoration his father receives as the Hokage of the village. While Boruto loves his father, he has grown resentful towards Naruto because he believes that the older man overlooks his family because of his duties as the Hokage. This eventually leads him to search for his own destiny, away from his father's enormous shadow. Boruto becomes a disciple of Sasuke Uchiha, his father's closest friend and one-time rival. The anime premiered on April 5, 2017. Here is everything you need to know about its upcoming episode.

In Kara's hideout, when Garo physically abuses him, Kawaki's Karma gets triggered, and it burns the lower part of Garo's face. In the present time, Delta gains Jigen's permission to follow Koji and find out why he is taking so long to retrieve the Vessel. But Jigen explicitly tells Delta not to interfere with Koji's mission. After Boruto and company find an unconscious Kawaki, the two Karmas' proximity gives both Boruto and Kawaki immense physical pain. This wakes the latter up. Initially, Kawaki thinks that Boruto and others are trackers sent by Kara. Konohamaru speaks up, explaining that he is a Shinobi from Konohagakure, and tells Kawaki that he has to come with them. At a short distance, Delta joins Koji atop a tree branch and watches as the scene unfolds. Boruto tries to placate Kawaki by showing him his own Karma, but it further aggravates the other youth. However, right before a fight is about to break out, Garo arrives and attacks Kawaki. In episode 189, a battle between Garo and Kawaki might take place. Boruto might gain more information about his Karma. Read More: Naruto Shippuden Ending, Explained Boruto Episode 189 Release Date When Is Boruto Episode 189 Coming Out?
